DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments, see pages 2 and 3, filed on March 21, 2005, with respect to claims 1-6 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 1-6 has been withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-6 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance.

The prior art of record, taken alone or in combination, does not teaches the construction of a control apparatus for an electrical generator of a vehicle as described on independent claim 1, comprising:

switch means coupled to supply a drive current to display means which indicate a power generating status of said electrical generator, said switch means operable for interrupting said supply of drive current;

a current detection means for detecting a level of current flow through said switch means;

a reference value generating means for determining a reference value, to be compared with said detected level of current; and current limiting means for comparing said level of current with said reference value, and for limiting current supplying operation of said switch means in accordance with a result of said comparison;

wherein said reference value generating means successively outputs a plurality of reference values, including a first reference value corresponding a current value which is greater than a maximum value of surge current which flows in said switch means, and a second reference value which corresponds a current value that is greater than a normal value of current which flows in said switch means.

Dependent claims 2-6 are considered allowable by their respective dependence on allowed independent claim 1.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. See PTO-892.
